SCHOLARSHIP APPLICANT REVIEW:

When considering scholarship applicants, the committee needs to consider what scholarship guidelines the student is following with the application. It is possible to invite Luanne Snyder from Financial Aid to a Faculty Advisory Committee meeting to discuss the process. It was recommended that questions be added to the blackboard shell which can be presented to Louanne when she attends a meeting.

Discussion ensued regarding service work, essays, guidelines and how the rubric was helpful in scoring applicants. Faculty Advisory members shared their applicant choices for both the Freeman and Saab scholarships. The Freeman True Blue Scholarship was awarded to Anna Maria Genovesi who was awarded $3,139. The selected Ghassan and Manal Saab Scholarship recipients were Chase Hanson and Rebecca Miller who will each receive $6,655. The Alternate for the Freeman True Blue Scholarship was Breanna Tribelhorn. The First Alternate for Saab was Sara McCarter, Second Alternate for Saab was John Medeiros.

K. Moreland reported that he had received an email about submitting a final report on Committee activities for the year. It was suggested to review previous reports for formatting and suggestions.

The next Civic Engagement grant applications will be due August 1st for the upcoming fall semester. Received applications will be sent to committee members for review and approval.
